

FER-143. Figure 6B. Fault features, indicative of historic faulting, in the North of Oildale quadrangle verified in the field during this investigation. Solid line indicates features are well defined. Dashed line indicates features are less well defined, partly obscured by development, or were verified by Smith (1978) and not rechecked in detail during this investigation. Hachures indicate downthrown side of fault scarp.

CONTOUR INTERVAL 20 FEET
DATUM IS MEAN SEA LEVEL

143-8